Furnericksburg, Va., September 26.—
For several days past the political arena in this city has been somewhat agitated, especially among the Republicans, over the amouncement that a colored anti-Mahone club would be organized, and, despite the efforts of several prominent identifican negro leaders to prevent that race-liften attending the meeting, an organization was perfected last hight in Hayden's Hall by the election of officers and the enrolment of over thirty names. The significance of the meeting was the enrolment as members of the club of some of the most heretofore active and influential leaders of the colored race, and it fluential leaders of the colored race, and it is reported that a number will join the club at its next meeting. All the members of the club are bitterly opposed to Mahone and are open in their denunciation of him. This is a severe blow to the Republican party, and a largely increased Democratic majority here is expected.

HAMPTON, VA., September 26, 1889.

Your correspondent, in a half-hour's walk this morning, interviewed twenty-six of the white Republican voters of this county as to whether or not they intended to support Mahone for Governor. Of that mumber afteen stated that they would not, seven will vote for him, and four were non-committal. With the four last referred to it was evident that Mahone was not a favorite. One of them is a prominent anti-midiations point to Mahone receiving about one third of the white Republican vote in the county.

The Democratic County Committee holds an important meeting on Saturday.

PAUL. was slim, and very little business was transacted.

Notwithstanding Colonel S. Brown Allen had been billed to address the citizens of this county the crowd was so small and so strongly "anti-Mahone" that Mr. Allen declined to speak: but I have understood that he promised to come back next court. Mahone circulars are flowing into the county thick and fast. The anti-Mahone sentiment in this county is on the increase. Hon. Jacob Yost has many friends here in the Republican party who stand shoulder to shoulder with him.

The Democrats have had no speaker to address them as yet. Now is the time to strike. Let the committee send us O'Forrall or our gallant Harry Tucker, and we will report good news in November next.

This section of the black belt will worfully disappoint the Republicans in November. Princess Anne, Norfolk city, Southampton, Isle of Wight, and possibly Nansemond will give gratifying Democratic majorities, and the Republican figures of Norfolk county will be reduced amazingly. The reports received from all sections of the Second district are of the most encouraging character and show that the work of organization is progressing in the most satisfactory manner, and deep inroads will be made in the ranks of the enemy in every direction.
